Enoch in the Bible was the Man Who Walked With God

Enoch in the Bible was one of only two people who did not die. Scripture says Enoch walked with God, but the Bible says that Enoch continued to walk with the true God and that Enoch pleased God well. But when Genesis 5 says God took him what does that mean? Enoch the Man Who Pleased God

- Like Abel, very little is written about Enoch in the Bible. Yet, God placed him in the chapter of great men and women of faith. Why did God take Enoch and Elijah to heaven without them dying?

The question of why God took Enoch and Elijah to heaven without them dying is answered according to the Bible: Enoch and Elijah are the only two people God took to heaven without them dying. Genesis 5:24 tells us that Enoch walked with God as he was no more because God took him away. Enoch's Walk with God Ends Badly in Babylonia

- Part 1 in Genesis, Enoch is said to have walked with God and ultimately to have been taken by him in second temple works such as Jubilees and 1 Enoch. Enoch becomes an immortal figure identified as the son of man. Jewish mystical traditions found in 3 Enoch identify him as the angel Metatron who sits on his own celestial throne and is referred to as the Lesser YHWH.

They Walked with God: Intimate Biographies of Patriarchs

- Apparently, the book of Jasher could have been inserted in place of the book of Genesis since much of it overlaps the story of Adam and Eve. In some ways, the book of Jasher is more complete. There is much more on Enoch if the goal of life is to break the wheel of reincarnation and ascend back to God, then that is reason enough for those who have tampered with the Bible to leave out.

The Enoch Factor: The Sacred Art of Knowing God

- Steve McSwain's book explores the hidden significance of Enoch in three words: Aliens. Enoch and Elijah did they enter heaven? There are many people, even some theologians, who believe emphatically that Elijah was taken to God's throne in heaven. Book of Enoch Free Download in Open Formats

- In the Bible, there are only three people who never died: Enoch, Melchizedek, and Elijah. Melchizedek was Christ himself. Elijah was taken to God's throne in heaven. There is a difference performing a heavenly function here on Earth and Elijah did finally die using the body of John the Baptist.
